Art Nook Tips & Reminders:

Payments:

(1) If you paid for the full semester and decide to cancel, no refunds or credits will be given. (2) If you chose to pay with payment plan, automatic payment begins September 1st and is auto-billed on the 1st of the month each month thereafter.
 All absences including school break vacations and holidays are not subject to prorate.

Absences:

If the student is absent we will work with you to get them caught up by offering make-up time within the same month. Often, it is as simple as coming 30 minutes early the following week. This is individualized time which is a convenience we offer so please stay flexible! If you cannot make coming in early or to another scheduled class work, then the absence will be forfeited.

Coming in early:

We know parents are busy and juggling many things! So you are welcome to drop your child off a few minutes (5-10) early if needed. But please be respectful of the teacher’s planning time as it is often filled with make-ups, prep, and set-up.

Accompanying your student to class:

If you are going to accompany your child to class, we ask that you maximize the learning experience by sitting in the waiting room. In our experience, students are able to focus more when they have the freedom to create individually. If the waiting room gets too full or students become distracted, we ask that you take it upon yourself to step out.

Canceling:

Schedules change! If you are wanting to stop classes...no problem! Please just let us know 2 weeks prior so we can be sure to stop your auto-pay if you are on monthly payment plan. If your card is charged before you let us know, there will be no refunds.

Enrollment:

We auto-enroll students into the Spring semester unless given notice via email by December 18th, 2026 that are un-enrolling. Classes will begin again on January 4th, 2027.

Hours:

We are a small business with a small staff so our in-studio time is limited to the times we are prepping and teaching. We also teach in the community so if you are wanting to come in we welcome you, just be sure to contact us ahead of time so we can let you know when we will be in that particular week.

Contact:

We are best via email at art@artnookaiken.com. But you can also text or call us at 803-721-3392. We also have an app, partnering with Momence, that makes it all easier. Scan the QR Code above to get the app.
